Weather Condition:

5. No, or delayed flying is subject to many factors like delayed clearance from Airforce & Civil Aviation, VVIP movements, valley flying by Indian Air Force (NOTAM), bad weather conditions, sudden development of technical snag in the helicopter, illness of the flying crew, and delayed positioning of the guests at the helipads.
6. In case guests are not even able to take the first flight from Dehradun to Yamunotri due to bad weather then we will try to accommodate them the next day. However, if the weather doesn't permit that the next day as well, then the trip will be cancelled, and a refund of the trip would be given in 25-30 days after deducting accommodation, meals, and transport charges at Dehradun and flight planning charges of INR 15000 per person.
7. If the guests get stuck at any of the Dhams due to bad weather and are not able to fly that day to their schedule destination, then we will try to fly them the next day. However, in that case, we might have to visit two Dhams/destinations in one single day to make up for the previous day's lost time. For example if guests get stuck at Gangotri and are not able to travel to Kedarnath, then the next day we will visit both Kedarnath and Badrinath the same day, and the night halt will be at Badrinath, not at Kedarnath.
8. The same rule would be applicable to all the Dhams, depending on which Dham the guests are stuck at. Any donations, tips, pitthu, and porter charges shall be borne by the guests only.
9. If stuck in a bad weather situation on any particular day out of the 5 days, we shall try to finish two Dhams on the next day and maintain the further schedule.
10. Full refund shall be applicable in case we are unable to commence the journey from Dehradun due to any reason beyond our control, after deducting accommodation, meals, and transport charges at Dehradun and flight planning/ shall try to finish two Dhams on next day & maintain the further schedule. If stuck in a bad weather situation on any particular day out of the 5 days.
